Its been too many days
There's so much to say
In so many ways Im driven to whatever catches flame
Anytime that Im not there
Remind yourself that things are not that bad
Anytime that Im not there
Think of the good things that you have
Don't take this wrong
Keep holding on
Your coming back now
The feelings always right
But the timings always wrong
Its the simple things in your life that keep you holding on
Anytime that Im not there
Keep the faith and hold your head up high
Anytime that Im not there
Youll find the answer deep inside
