Close my eyes I can see you here
The moment dies but wont disappear
Take this any way you can
I need to make you understand
I need you now
Someday
It will be like before
And well be here again
And we will laugh again
Ill finally have what I wished for
I remember our first time
As we walked the beach your hand touched mine
The simple things we use to share
Like making fun of your sisters hair
Friday nights when we use to chill
In your daddys Coup DeVille
I need you now
Someday
And how long will this burn
Its been the same since that day
Nothing will take that away
