

Parle "Silent Barricade"

Visit "Silent Barricade" on MotoLyrics.com

I'm prominent in my hesitation,
Due to the lack of my realization
It all reflects on selflessness
It all reflects on self

I never claimed to be the one
I never claimed to help you up
I hear the softness of your love
When you whisper you whisper

My love might haunt you
My love might harm you

Gather the light

For now just rest, for now

I never claimed to be the one
I never claimed to help you up
I hear the softness of your love
When you whisper you whisper

(My mind haunts to much this time)
Save today, your gone tomorrow
Paint the past and cauterize
Liberate from suffocation
Burden me...

I never claimed to be the one
I never claimed to help you up
I hear the softness of your love
When you whisper you whisper
