Paid the price of an existence you impose and I would long for living in the land of sweetener is not fun I would have killed to be in your land your democratic combination of nazi trends but we living in the land of sweetener and we're coming on and on what we always got as a sweetener It's coming on and on land of freedom land of wisdom you care only about one culture you helping us carrying the weight of our cultural gap but something is going wrong I would have killed to be your race maybe I'd impose someone my system living in the province of the empire is not fun we're coming on and on
what we always got as a sweetener
living in the land of sweetener is not fun
I would have killed to be your race how destruction can meet grace
the weight of our cultural gap but something will go wrong
what we always got as a sweetener
