Do you want to run away
Away from the window display
Let's get on the road today
Awaiting us, a brand new way
It is, but it isn't
People always taking, never giving
The dead must be laughing at the living
Oh man, you've got to find yourself

Responsible
Before the whole world's in a hospital
Every single time that you promise you will
You just can't sit still, you just need more

Down-presser man in a three piece suit
Thinking that his people gonna burn and loot tonight

Well, he's right... Well, he's right
Down-presser man in a three piece suit
Thinking that his people gonna burn and loot tonight
Well, he's right... Well, he's right

You're responsible
Before the whole world's in a hospital
Every single time that you promise you will
You just can't sit still, you just need more
You are impossible to figure out
How you could toss the world around
You juggle just like a clown
Behind closed doors
