I'm lost and confused
I'm stuck in your favourite parade
I'm choking, I feel strangled
I can't get a feeling
Is this a game?
I'm begging
But you wont please me
How come I bleed for this illusion
I've been falling for so long now
Will I ever see that this isn't real?

Then it all comes into the frame
The struggle- It just isn't worth it
We think we are the originality
We overdo it and become just the same

Im waiting for a break
So for it seemed to be out of reach

But today I'm god-like
Stay away cause it's my time to play
The revenge- feel my wrath
Stay away because I'm back
I'll join the elite
