You're making me feel guilt in whatever I do It's killing me easily
can't take it no more
no no

I'm bearing the invisible chains in my heart
Disabling my mind
and destroying my life
Ain't breathing here

I'm breaking away
breaking away
away from you

I'm still feeling guilt even though I'm on my own The voice preaching inside me won't leave me alone That's me I see

I'm breaking away
breaking away
breaking away
away from you

I'm bleeding here

I'm breaking away
breaking away
breaking away
away from you
