"Get Away"

I'm waking at the darkest hour trying to catch these falling splinters
My hands are shaking sweating
Oppression has got a hold on me again

Get away get away from this room
I cannot breathe I think I'm dying
Get away get away from this room

Lying so sweet in your bed sunny daisies in your hair Unaware that my nightmares are turning to be so so real now

Get away get away from this room
I cannot breathe I think I'm dying
Get away get away from this room

Get away get away from this dream
I cannot sleep I know I'm falling
Get away get away from unreal

But I cannot get away
I know I can't escape
But I cannot get away
I know I can't escape

Get away get away from this room
I cannot breathe I think I'm dying
Get away get away from this room

Get away get away from this dream
I cannot sleep I know I'm falling
Get away get away from unreal

Get away get away
Get away
