"Invisible Child"

Visit "Invisible Child" on MotoLyrics.com

She's alone
She wants to be alone in her home eating even though she's full up
No one cares afraid that no one cares
She thinks she's nobody having nothing to give

She's alive invisible child
She's alive beyond the lies

Sitting there in her rocking chair inside her mind drawing lines of better life
But she don't dare to even open the door
She feels it's safer inside
'cause outside she might die

She's alive invisible child
She's alive beyond the lies

Night turns into day
Life just stays the same
She's alive invisible child
She's alive beyond the lies

She's alive invisible child
She's alive when she has died
