Who's the one living with us?
Who's standing between us?
Whose world we're living in?
Whose rules we're following?
That one is me
and you see
I'm unable to see it clearly Words that I say
are not of my own
I'm a prisoner of unknown
Someone else is pulling me, she's making me do things,
I don't wanna do Someone else keeps tearing you and that someone is not me
This ain't no me
that you see
This ain't no me that you're hearing
Words that you hear
I do not know
I'm a prisoner of my mind
Someone else is living here
I'm breaking away from sanity
This ain't no me
that you see
This ain't no me
that you're hearing
Words that you hear
are not of my own
I'm a prisoner of my mind
That one is me
and you see
I'm unable to see it clearly
Words that I say

I do not know
I'm a prisoner of unknown
