I want you to know to let me go The chains in my veins keep on stealing the life from the inside

I'm taking this life to be all mine I'm breaking these chains here to see the love inside

Still I'm feeling sad
I know it will ease
Still I'm feeling sad
I know it will ease

This breathtaking ride has been so high making me blind here to see the one inside

Still I'm feeling sad
I know it will ease
Still I'm feeling sad
I know it will ease

It's waiting so wild to fill all this time Maybe I'm trying to seek another tie

Still I'm feeling sad
I know it will ease
Still I'm feeling sad
I know it will ease
