"The Swallow"

I'm waiting for the swallow He's turning to me
I take him to my prison
I'm keeping the key

But in his prison he's lonely singing his sweetest song to me
I listen to him singing
He belongs to me

Lonely so lonely
dying slowly
He's trying to sing
I'm trying to see

The days went by and I forgot him inside
I lost the key without seeds he's reaching out for me And starving to death waiting for the end

Lonely so lonely
dying slowly
He's trying to sing
I'm trying to see

If I release the swallow I'm learning to see
And in the wind tomorrow
he's turning free

"Lonely not lonely flying only"
He's crying to me
I'm finding the key
