Stuck in the mud and im trying not to drown i'd be better if i knew where mud went dont want to run but it getting to hard to keep fighting on for all your dreams give me some time cuz this head isnt mine i want something, im trying to explain just go away, i dont need you to stay you're my mirror, please dont ever break

So hold on to today
we're so near the end
they'll be no tomorrow
without today

They cant take it, give yourself a break tomorrow when you're smiling and you dont know why you can make cuz you'll be a star

be a star
be a star
be a star
be a star
be a star
be a star
be a star
be a star
be a star

Try not to run cuz its really a fall and instead of trying make you proud maybe the end is much closer my friend get my lead out, its a bullet in your brain

they'll be no tomorrow

They cant take it, give yourself a break tomorrow
when you're smiling and you dont know why

be a star
be a star
be a star
be a star
be a star
be a star
be a star
be a star
be a star
