from The City That Care Forgot from the section where rations had to be airdropped was undetected but they know I'm here now rapping through my Verizon network you n ggas hear me now I'm in VA with my big homie twistin' backwards usually I don't get down like that but that's my dog I hit a few times out of respect and now I'm on the jet full of trees watching videos laughing at studio gangsta they mo' Gents then G's my bitches use your mixtape cover to break they trees on ? top of the building, villa, gorilla king kong Thrilla Manilla Spitta get his king of the ring on deals back and forth on the table that's label ping pong won't get caught up in it that sucka sh*t nothing positive whatever come from it I'll buy this sh*t entirely from the hip hop government And fools know I never sell my soul I swear on both eyes never change in attempt to gain dollar signs I just kept it G and waited for the perfect time go left if the situation ain't right only thing I got if you're asking for advice the moves I had in my life was difficult but if I had two I would do it twice.
Buzz increased till it became a bang Jet planes in the building b*tch we do our thang lay slocks? on my fly red 5's walk in the club with gangsta who amazed to still be alive
'cause they been through it but I took them out it when I put my heart into this music I got some money out it from East 34th to JFK by helicopter I'm in the magazines you're in barbershops reading about me and I know your girl made you mo; mad when she picked you up from work she had that How Fly on full blast just another shot from the extended clip of Jet Sh*t and another one coming before you even know your hit these b*tches is becking by the smell of the Jet piff these n*ggas is jealous of the love the JETS get but i ain't stressing, momma roll up the whole zip and let me smoke away all this industry bull sh*t
