Now skies are crying over me
I try to say just anything
Just anything so you won't go

I know you think it is too late
I see that look upon your face
But please hold on, be strong for me
I still believe

You can show me heaven
You can show me how to speak love

Fight the shadows, light the way
Stay with me for one more day
You can show me heaven, you can show me heaven
Let the sun shine through the rain

I never meant to lose your heart
So when I see that's all I had I fall apart
You can show me heaven
You can show me how to speak love

Fight the shadows, light the way
Stay with me for one more day
You can show me heaven, you can show me heaven
Let the sun shine through the rain

And if we make it through the night
I know we can make us to shine

Fight the shadows, light the way
Light up, light up my way
Stay with me for one more day my love
You can show me heaven, you can show me heaven
Let the sun shine through the rain

And if we make it through the night

I know we can make us to shine
You can show me heaven, you can show me heaven
Let the sun shine through the rain
