Eligy for amy

She moved away to a kinder place,
Where her soul flies
Shes smiling down upon us
Her heart warms the room now
Just help us through today your spirit guides us

Amy can you hear me?
Youre upstairs gently listening
Were all down here wishing
You hadnt left so soon

I want to thank you for your belief in me,
Now I believe in you
There is something strange about it
I can shut my eyes and see you there
I wish I'd said more words now the musics singing

Amy can you hear me?
Youre upstairs gently listening
Were all down here wishing
You hadnt left so soon
Amys smile will cure you
So close your eyes and call her.
Shes waiting upstairs with jesus.
Where everyones your friend
