Gone away and hide your eyes
Stay for me with no disguise
We should fall, still we can rise
Lay it down, your heart, tonight

Try to imagine your soul set free
Let it go and run to me
Youve got my heart, now take my life
Lay it down, my love

Chorus
Runaway, runaway, runaway to me
Runaway, darlin wont you stay with me
Runaway, runaway, runaway to me
Now I will back you up

You can hear the time slippin away
You cry the tears for today
She screams come inside, but you can't stay
Lay it down, my love

Runaway, runaway, runaway to me
Runaway, darlin wont you stay with me
Now I will back you up
Hey, I will back you up
Hey, I will back you up

Everyones around us now
But still we only hear one sound
Its so intense, you just can't breathe
Lay it down, my love...
