What ya tryin' to do to my heart
you go around tellin' lies and now you wanna compromise
you better run, you better hide you better leave, from my side, yeah

what ya tryin' to do to my soul
what ya tryin' to do to my soul when everything I have is yours and now I'm closing all the doors what ya tryin' to do to my soul

I love you, oh I love you so can't ya see it, don't ya know I can't stand your alibis you're tellin' lies, tell me why, yeah say what are you tryin' to do to my head say what ya tryin' to do to my head well now I'm gonna draw that line 'cause you ain't gonna take my mind what are you tryin' to do to my head

you better run, you better hide
you better leave from my side

I said yeah , yeah
I said go away and leave me alone
I can't stand you no more
