[Slick Rick]

Well, I waited long time sweatin it Gettin jerked but yea I'm gettin it Early mornin, stiff as dawn and 'em, cuz a brother give the mornin off
And then we doin in, paranoid to new swearin I said meet me in the lobby skip So one could cut down on the cherry tip Alright, he flyin scat, to being fair to show a mighty that La Di Da Di wanted Gotti and although depended on the body and Who I know was gonna runaway, am I to live to serve the next day
When I know she's gonna be wit him, so hallelujah, praise God King

Checked it out, even candle light I figured out better handle it my nigga, in I think the best thing is to block her out cuz she doesn't give a fuck about So much change and true it in, you would of cared to wish the u-nion She's not a phony, turn the Sony off, you better overcome the lonely of Although a brother lettin that, thus don't know where I'm headin at
To see, even though we fought of it by bother just the very thought of it When I know she's gonna runaway, am I to live to serve
the next day
When I know she's gonna be wit him, so hallelujah,
praise God King
And I know you're gonna runaway, am I to live to serve
the next day
When I know you gonna be wit him, can't belive that this is happenin

Well, I should say fine and phone wit coin but though you say that I'm the only one What, behind my back thinkin of, or father not the one I'm thinkin of
On this stress, and when it's gonna end down wit this burden here I'm wonderin I know I should say fine fed it yea and think about all the girls ahead of ya Though hard for me to just forget he and try to follow to the letter end Although the terrible things we riff about or follow wise that I can live it out When I know you're gonna runaway, am I to live to serve the next day
When I know you gonna be wit him, so hallelujah,
praise God King
When I know you're gonna runaway, am I to live to serve the next day
When I know you gonna be wit him, can't believe this is happenin
I know you're gonna runaway, I know you're gonna be wit him Seems I know you're gonna runaway, I know you're gonna be wit him Can't believe this is happenin
