Fight the good fight of faith,
transform the life that you were called upon.
Rise up.
This matter is in your hands,
In your hands.
But we fail to follow him,
and he still guides us.
Take his hand and follow him,
he will guide us.
Show me your ways, teach me your path.
He is my strength, my shield,

and my heart will trust in him.
Your love is like mighty mountains.
This is in my hands,
and I'm never letting go.
Show me your ways, teach me in your path,
guide me in your eyes.
This is the life that your were called upon.
Rise up, this matter's in your hands.
He is the way, the truth, the life.
