It's getting late in the evening
It's time now for dreaming

A candle is burning and tables are burning Yeah.
The shadows of darkness will fade in the pale moonlight

And when we get together as one it will be alright.

Don't talk of destiny
Don't tell me whatever will be will be

'cause you're gonna see -

We'll be raising heaven in hell tonight

Fill the shadows with tender might

Raising heaven in hell tonight in midnight's dream.
We'll be raising heaven in hell tonight

Love
Thunder and dynamite

Take my hand and hold on tight in midnight's dream.

We'll see the joker
The juggler
The sailor
The refugees

We'll hear the rich man
The poor man
The beggar down on his knees.
We'll see the hungry
The stranded
The poor empty-handed ones
And I'll hold you in my arms forever 'til kingdom comes.

Don't talk of destiny

Don't tell me whatever will be will be

'cause you're gonna see -

We'll be raising heaven in hell tonight

Fill the shadows with tender might

Raising heaven in hell tonight in midnight's dream.

We'll be raising heaven in hell tonight

Love

Thunder and dynamite

Take my hand and hold on tight in midnight's dream.

As the years roll by and the memories fly

And the sun goes down tonight

I will take your hand

We will make our stand

Tonight

Tonight

Tonight -

We'll be raising heaven in hell tonight

Fill the shadows with tender might

Raising heaven in hell tonight in midnight's dream.

We'll be raising heaven in hell tonight

Love

Thunder and dynamite

Take my hand and hold on tight in midnight's dream.

We'll be raising heaven in hell tonight

Fill the shadows with tender might

Raising heaven in hell tonight in midnight's dream.

We'll be raising heaven in hell tonight

Love

Thunder and dynamite

Take my hand and hold on tight in midnight's dream.
