You got a dirty little secret
And you got rocks in your head
You went looking for love pretty baby Ended up in someone else's bed

You got the heat and the passion
And you got the cash and the clothes
But you're still living your lie little girl
And you don't even want to know Just keep your eyes closed and go home alone

You can't make love without heart and soul honey
Well, there's more to makin' love than gettin' around Well, you can't make love outta sex and drugs and money Well, there's more to makin' love, there's more to
makin' love
Than layin' down, layin' down

Sounds like the perfect situation Sounds like no strings attached But who's gonna hold you when the party's over And everybody wants their real lives back

Who's gonna be here to thrill you When the beast goes back in the cage Who's your Romeo and Juliet
When all the other actors want to leave the stage

You can't make love without heart and soul honey
Well, there's more to makin' love than gettin' around Well, you can't make love outta sex and drugs and
Well, there's more to makin' love, there's more to
makin' love

Mama never told you there'd be days like these And daddy never thought you'd be on your knees In the gutter baby, that's where you are

But all you really wanted was someone to hold

All you really got is left out in the cold With nothin' baby, you got nothin' baby

Well, you can't make love without heart and soul honey
Well, there's more to makin' love than gettin' around Well, you can't make love outta sex and drugs and
Well, there's more to makin' love, there's more to
makin' love

Well, you can't make love without heart and soul honey
Well, there's more to makin' love than gettin' around Well, you can't make love outta sex and drugs and
Well, there's more to makin' love, there's more to
makin' love
Than layin' down, than layin' down

There's more to makin' love, there's more to makin'
love
There's more to makin' love, than layin' down, down
There's more to makin' love, there's more to makin'
love
There's more to makin' love, than layin' down, down

There's more to makin' love, there's more to makin'
love
There's more to makin' love, than layin' down, down
There's more to makin' love, there's more to makin'
love
There's more to makin' love, than layin' down, down

There's more to makin' love, there's more to makin'
love
There's more to makin' love, than layin' down, down
