I make mistakes like any man
But I try to love you best I can
I can't convince you though heaven knows I try
I've tried to make you see to make you believe

You're all that matters to me
The ground that you walk, the air that you breathe
Someday you'll discover, I don't want no other
Believe me, you're all that matters, baby
All that matters to me

I know that you've been hurt before
But that won't happen anymore, no no
Just give your heart to me, I'll guard it with my life
I don't know what I'd do baby, without you

You're all that matters to me
The ground that you walk, the air that you breathe
Someday you'll discover, I don't want no other
Believe me, you're all that matters, baby
All that matters to me

People looking for paradise
Well baby, I know that I found mine
And if you don't believe it baby
Take a look at the love in my eyes
Oh I'll be with you, baby 'til the end of time
I'll be alright baby just as long as you're mine

You're all that matters to me
The ground that you walk, the air that you breathe
Someday you'll discover, I don't want no other
Believe me, you're all that matters, baby
All that matters to me

You're all that matters to me
The ground that you walk, the air that you breathe
Someday you'll discover, I don't want no other
Believe me, you're all that matters, baby
All that matters to me

You're all that matters to me

The ground that you walk, the air that you breathe
Someday you'll discover, I don't want no other
Believe me, you're all that matters, baby
All that matters to me
Matters to me
