move me

it's in the way the moon smiles on the water twenty past midnight on a Tuesday it's the magic of the silence falling on the scene standing by a river in some sleepy mining town and I'm powerless over this the words fail and I'm speechless

You find me
Where I'm hiding
See through me you undo me and I'm loving the way loving the way I'm loving the wayÂ...you move me it's in the way you love when love is not returned and the way that I can feel what I can't see It's the mystery of greace praying I won't fall while waiting in the wings to catch me
