looks like rain
fell off the horse again and I curse the selfish pride that came before feels like rain this melancholy mood I'm in as I watch the empty glass that's landing on the floor sweet Jesus hold us when we're hurting and lost, let us find your way cause we all feel the pain we're all waiting for the day while the here and now keeps dragging on and we all hide away under canopies of grace to keep us on the rainy days they will keep us on the rainy days

can't find my faith again and I'm sure I had it not an hour ago
feels like rain
I'm falling sideways with the wind all the while believing I am not alone
