

Paul Allen

"The Ibifa Song"

Visit "The Ibifa Song" on MotoLyrics.com

The IBIFA Song (Clean Version)

(voice) Flying somewhere nice sir.

Yeah, FALARAKI.

As we takes off, to Ibifa, all our thoughts of love are fillin'
the air.

As we heads out to Ibifa we said "cobblers to our troubles and cares.

When we gets there to Ibifa, we'll get legless and drunk
out
of our brains.

We'll get demented, we'll get arrested. And probably all end up
in chains.

And if I meet her in Ibifa, I'll tell her she's the love of my life.

And if I meet her in Ibifa, I hope that she don't look like the wife.

Ow, I sees enough of her in the house.

We'll go clubbin', we'll go drinkin', we'll go mental and we'll dance throught the night. We'll grab somebody,
without drinkin'
And probably end up in a fight.

And if I meet her in Ibifa, in the moonlight we'll walk
hand in hand.

And I'll surprise her in Ibifa, when I gets out my spade
and plays in the sand. Behave there's kids listening.

In Ibifa, they likes to mingle, everybody joins in the dance.

In Ibifa 'ewe senses tingle, as 'ewe takes a shot of finding romance.

'Ewe chats a girl up, 'ewe buys her be vies, 'ewe starts

to think 'ewe
finally bald. Then her brother gets all heavy and comes along and
knocks 'ewe out cold.

Ow that hurt.

If I meet her in Ibifa. I'll love her anyway that I can.
We'll be so happy in Ibifa just as long as she don't tell
her old man.

He is...he got hairs on his chest like a busted couch.

We'll be so happy in Ibifa, we'll never ever wanna go home.
'coz on that dancefloor in Ibifa, 'ewe can swill 'ewe Y-fronts out in
the foam.

Saves on the powder.

When I get back from Ibifa, home to all my troubles and cares.
I'll get arrested at the airport for something that I forgot to declare.

Typical.

Now my times up in Ibifa, I'm coming home and I'm off
my head.
When she sees me, the wife will kill me, she thinks I only popped out
for bread.

When I met her in Ibifa, I knew that there was love up
for grabs.
And on that seashore in Ibifa, we went fishing then went looking for crabs. And I caught 'em.

When I met her in Ibifa, we held hands long into the night.
In the moonlight in Ibifa, that's where I had such a terrible fright.
It's the wife.

Now my times up in Ibifa, i'm coming home and I'm off
my head.
When she sees me the wife will kill me, she thinks I only popped out

for bread.

And next year in Ibifa, I'll behave myself and I'll use my head.

And if they throws me out of Ibifa, I'll have two weeks in Butlins instead.

I'm going home, I've had enough

(voice) Got anything to declare sir.

Yeah, I'm absolutely FALARAKI.

Visit Paul Allen page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.