Yeah, yeah, yeah...

I've been away from you
Such a long, long time
Since I've been gone
The sun won't shine

I miss you so
You'll never know
How I do

Yeah, yeah, yeah...

Every little thing
That I say and do
Every thought leads
Me back to you

Something's wrong
I can't go on
Without you

I'm coming home
Dear, right away
I'll never think of going away
I wanna hold you like before
I wanna love you forever more

So I count the
Miles of railroad track
Seven miles and
I'll soon be back

I love you so
You'll never know
How I do

(I'm coming home)
(I'm coming home)

I'm coming home
Dear, right away

I'll never think of going away
I wanna hold you like before
I wanna love you forever more

I count the
Miles of railroad track
Seven miles and
I'll soon be back

I love you so
You'll never know
How I do

(I'm coming home to you)
You'll never know how I do
(I'm coming home to you)
Never, never know how I do
(I'm coming home to you)
Oh, I love you
(I'm coming home to you)
