Red sails in the sunset way out on the sea
Oh! carry my loved one home safely to me.

She sailed at the dawning , all day long I've been blue,
Red sails in the sunset you know I'm just trusting you.

Swift wings I'm gonna borrow make straight for the shore,
We're gonna marry,yes, tomorrow and she'll go sailing
no more.

Red sails in the sunset way out on the sea,
Oh! carry my loved one, yes, safely to me.

Swift wings you must borrow make straight, straight for the shore.
You know I'm gonna marry,yes, tomorrow and we'll go sailing no more.

Red sails in the sunset way,way,way out on the sea.
Oh! carry my loved one home safely to me (twice).
