You're calm and collected
You're more than expected
Cool and confused
You're so easy and hectic

Tender and done for dazed and strong
I'm fine until you're gone
Against the wall you're holding onto
All that and more night and day
All that and more night and day

You're downward, you're smiling
The old man is crying
You're way too removed to
You're eager and flying

Tender and done for dazed and strong
You're fine until I'm gone
Against the wall I'm holding onto
You're all that and more night and day

All that and more night and day
All that and more night and day
All that and more night and day
