Do you believe it's true
It all depends on you?
If you were to fall down
We wouldn't know what to do?

I'm a lonely soul
I'm a lonely soul
When I think I'm alone

I want to be the moon
'Cause it reflects the sun
Don't want to be the star
That shines on everyone
I want to be with you
'Cause you're the only one
Who heals my lonely soul

Have you ever got
Everything you want?
Well did you fake a grin
And feel you lose when you win?
