Everyday I see the sun begin to shine
Every way I give what's yours and yours is mine
When I say that it's too fast I'm left behind
Walk a little bit nearer
Gonna play another song and take my time
Every way I give the best that I can find
Can I make a love that stays, reflects divine?
Hold a little bit closer grow a little bit older
And I know that I'm here for life
It ain't over
And I'm here for life
Can I say the words and know that you will hear?
Would it pay to say the words that show my fear?
When I know you've seen my worst but hold me dear
And your touches are healing
Overcome what I'm feeling
Now I know that I'm here for life
It ain't over
And I'm here for life
Crimson clover
I am here for life
Walk a little bit nearer held a little bit dearer
When I think of your crimson clover
Bleeding growing dying I know I can live
