When I was young I used to go to everyone
Just to try to find a love
Something real something I could really feel
I tried to fill the blackest hole
In this heart of mine
I ran and ran around the world
To see who I could find
Are you the One I've been looking for?
The One I've been searching for?
The One I've been looking for?
Every time I'd say that I was super fine
But if you took a look inside
You would see the opposite of harmony
I was crying for a melody
I just needed you to be the song
I looked at you and shut the door
Well maybe I was wrong
You're the kind of one
Who's gonna push right through
You're gonna steal my heart
Then I won't know what to do
I try to build a wall I try to keep you out
But you keep on coming
And you won't slow down
I've never really known how a love can feel
I got the walls of a city and a heart of steel
You take the city gates
And you push right through
And I try to stop your loving
Even though I want you to
