EXTREMITY

music and lyrics by Jonathan Dorsey

Well once I thought that I needed you
And so I put up with what you put me through
But now I see with clarity that I don't need you
I don't need you, I don't need you at all

Once I thought the pain I felt was love
But then I found out, then I ran for cover
I could find someone else now I don't need you

On and on we have grown apart together far from home
On and on the seeds are sewn
I can make it on my own

But now these days I come to find You're no longer on my mind
You faded away just like history and I don't need you
I don't need you, I don't need you at all
