I CAN SEE FOR MYSELF

Well some people see what other's would have them see

They take it all on blind faith, but that just ain't for me
There's only one way to get to the facts
You gotta see for yourself, not simply react
You gotta see for yourself
Well I can see for myself
I wanna see for myself, baby, if I'm gonna believe

Now some people feel what other's would have them to feel

But how can a second hand thought be counted as real?
There's only one time when a man is a man
When he refuses to crawl and learns how to stand
He's gotta see for himself
He's gotta see for himself
I wanna see for myself, baby, if I'm gonna believe

Some people say that they know the truth of the world
But there only repeating what somebody told them before

Now how many times do I gotta explain
I gotta see it first hand, it's gotta be plain
So I can see for myself
I gotta see for myself, now yeah yeah yeah
I wanna see for myself, baby, if I'm gonna believe
