"Must Be A Reason"

Somehow the sun came up today
I got up and got on my way
The Earth kept spinning though I had thought it'd stop
Somehow I made it through again
Somehow the world didn't come to an end
There must be a plan, but I don't know what it is

But there must be a reason,
There must be some meaning
Though right now I can't understand why you're gone
And I keep getting older
I look over my shoulder
And see you waving to me and saying to keep keeping on
There must be a reason

Someone must not be finished with me
There must be a job I have to complete
Some explanation for why I'm still here
And I could never forget about you
You're with me in every thing that I do
As I lie here tonight with memories of you in my mind
