MY HEART BEATS FOR YOU

music and lyrics by Jonathan Dorsey

I don't know what to say
The sun came out today
It's all because of you and I can tell you
The fire that's in my heart exploded from a spark
Shot from you the second that I saw you

You take me by surprise
The second that goes by
The things you do make my heart beat for you
It beats for you

In time they pass us by
We laugh and we will cry
But you'll still be the one I need to talk to
I want for you to see that you're so good for me
And in case you did not know it I really need you

I was stuck inside myself
I never trusted no one else
Now I find that I can't hide from you...
