PRIORITIES

music and lyrics by Jonathan Dorsey

I'm trying to piece together this problem we've between ourselves

It sure would be a whole lot easier if I had your help
I just want to sit down baby and talk to you face to face
But you just want to stay where you are
And leave me here in my place now

What do you mean you got to see to priorities
I always thought one of them was me
Well maybe it's time you reexamined priorities
Look in your mirror, is that what you see?

Remember when you and I could not stand to be apart
Letters every day and phone calls later when it got dark Lately things have changed and you seem so caught up in yourself
Well loving yourself's alright girl
But once in awhile you gotta think of someone else now

I don't think you're thinking straight
And I know I won't apologize
Because there's pain in my heart
It won't go away and it won't subside

Baby look in to your priorities
And see if there's room for just one more
And if it's too much to make me a priority
Look at me once before you close your door
