STANDING RIGHT NEXT TO YOU
music and lyrics by Jonathan Dorsey

If you don't want me by the phone
Don't say you're gonna call
If you don't really plan to write
Don't mention it at all
If you wanna make a fool of me
Then it's easy for you to do

Cos I don't know where I stand
When I'm standing right next to you
No I don't know where I stand
When I'm standing right next to you

If you don't want to build my hopes
Don't play these games with me
If you want me to go away
Just say that's how it's going to be
If you don't really want my love
Don't let me think that you do

Times past I knew where I stood
When asked you say the outlook was good
Now you're saying things you really don't mean
I'm stuck somewhere in between

My life is like a movie
And you hold the second reel
It'd be a great advantage if you'd tell me how you feel
If you would only tell me then I'd finally know what to do
