THE ANSWER IS YOU

music and lyrics by Jonathan Dorsey

Just a child when you found me
Lost til you came along
I didn't know what I was doing babe
I only know I was doing it wrong
When you sat down beside me and you reached for my hand
Now you're living inside me
There's so much that I don't understand

Cos I'm just a fool with questions around me
But now I know it's true
The longer I know you the more it astounds me
The answer is you

I was trapped in the darkness
My ship was lost at sea
Then you shone like a beacon
Was your honesty that rescued me
Now I'll never be lonely cos you'll never leave You're the only solution, girl
I just look in your eyes and believe

I want you, you want me
I need you today
I love you, you love me
Let's keep it that way

Just a child when you found me
Lost til you came along
I didn't know what I was doing, babe
I only know I was doing it wrong
Then you sat down beside me and you reached for my heart
Now you're living inside me, girl
If you leave it would tear me apart
