A gift from God, a small creation
A prized possession without limitations Behind these eyes, what do you see that isn't already yours
already yours
already yours
In fact I never wanted anything more
In fact I've never wanted anything less Oh shouldn't treat me like a stranger
Do you see I have the same effect Only this time on you Behind your eyes, what can I see that isn't already you

already you
already you
Voices of angels that I have Voices of angels I have Voices of angels I have
Voices of angels that I have Behind these eyes, what can I see that isn't already there
already yours
already there
already, already yours (BV: Don't run away) [repeat 6]
