Blue, I'm blue as the water
It's true, I'm cleaner than the air
The air you breathe, clearer than sunsets
And the picture of that woman in your heart

Push me into
Push me into [Incomprehensible]

Cold, colder than ice that melts the tips
Of the only questions that really exists to you
The horizon, frozen moonlight in your eye, in my eyes

Push me into
Push me into [Incomprehensible]

Tell it to the heart
Tell it to the heart
Tell it to the heart
Tell it to the heart

Tell it to the heart
Tell it to the heart
Tell it to the heart
Tell it to the heart

I'm clearer than sunsets
Of the person that sleeps in your heart
