A young girl with a bottle of wine
Is no place for a heart like mine to call home
A little wild when the sun ain't around
She got no one to hold her down, she's on her own
But there's a few things she don't know
Like how she makes me want her so when she says

Hey do you wanna dance?
Hey baby will you take that chance?
You know you can't give me too much love
So come on and give me one more dance
Give me one more dance

Down by the river on a Sunday night
Skinny dippin' in the broad moonlight, ain't it fine
She sings the song of old Mexico
Says it's someplace we will go sometime
But I don't know if I can wait that long
Seems to me I can't go wrong when she says

Su sonrisa
Su mirada
Me estoy volviendo loco
Cada vez que dice

Ay, ay, quier?s bailar?
Hey baby will you take that chance?
You know you can't give me too much love
V?n y ba?la una vez mas
Give me one more dance
