Time... can only tell the truth, can only heal the bruise...
Time... watches everyone and accept everything...
Now I try to feel it slowly and quietly

No one will loose, no one will win
Nothing will, will never change the rule

Glow and fade, as time goes by
Bloom and fall, as rocks turn into sands
Glow and fade, as time goes by
Bloom and fall, as rocks turn into sands
Into sands...

Time... can only give me right, right answers for myself
Now I try to take it peacefully and honestly

No one is worse, no one is better
Nothing will, will never change the rule

Glow and fade, as time goes by
Bloom and fall, as rocks turn into sands
Glow and fade, as time goes by
Bloom and fall, as rocks turn into sands
Into sands...

Glow and fade, as time goes by

Bloom and fall, as rocks turn into sands
Glow and fade, as time goes by
Bloom and fall, as rocks turn into sands
Glow and fade, as time goes by
Into sands...
