Everyone shaking hands! Having fun! All around!
21st century opens the door to the world!
Why do you hesitate? Just come enjoy what we have!
This is how it is! Things will never stay the same!

Don't matter what they say... the reality... this is how the world splits and grows...

We all like to celebrate, we all like to feel the happiness!

We all say...

Merry Christmas in a Buddhist land
People bow and smile, illuminations shine so bright
Merry Christmas in a Buddhist land
People bow and smile, illuminations shine so bright... it will go on...

Santa Claus... red hat! Rein deer... red nose!
They are so red from their top to the toes

Yellow moon glows and sings, happy songs on a happy day
Everyone is having a good time, sharing some love

Beyond ideologies, we all smile... finding what we are and what we need
Beyond all religion we all shake hands and give a toast!

We all say...

Merry Christmas in a Buddhist land
People bow and smile, illuminations shine so bright
Merry Christmas in a Buddhist land
People bow and smile, illuminations shine so bright
Merry Christmas in a Buddhist land
Merry Christmas in a Buddhist land
Merry Christmas in a Buddhist land
Let all the cultures come and go!
