Everybody cries...
We cry when we're happy and when we are sad
Some just try...
Not to cry, try to hide, try to be dry

Inside and outside, always cry
Transcend everything and everybody cries
Always good to cry...
You can cry now...
Transcend everything and everybody cries

We can cry now...
Good to cry...
Transcend everything and let, let it go
Let it go...

No one really knows
Where we came from and where we are going
A lot are afraid
They want to know but also they want to hide

Real intention but inside they cry
Transcend everything and they always cry
Always good to cry
You can cry now
Transcend everything and everybody cries

We can cry now
Bood to cry
Transcend everything and let, let it go
Let it go
Civilization can never change our emotion
Liberation we cry for
An emancipation is what we need
(One drop liberation)
Civilization can never control what we have
So we cry

As long as we believe
As long as we breathe we cry, always we cry
Let it flow

We don't have to know why
It's not simple like science
Without voice we cry, without fear we cry
Transcend everything and everybody cries

We can cry now
Good to cry
Transcend everything and everybody cries

Let it go, let it flow
Let it go, let it flow
Good to cry
