"Part To Play"

Even if raindrops make me sad and break my heart
Even if it's too hard to take another breath
I know that I mean something, something to this world
And I have a part that I am responsible to

Sitting down on top of the mountain
Wind is blowing, I am freezing, thinking of you
You live so far away and you have a part to take

Everybody has a part in this world!

It drives me crazy when it's overwhelming me
Sometimes it seems too complicated, yeah
There isn't much on top, on top of the mountain
I found this world is simply breathing, breathing free

I try to breathe and I try to seek
Thinking of your part and my part, clouds are moving What have we forgot? What have we earned and learned?

Everybody has a part in this world

We all have the parts to live, search the heart to give
(part to play!)

Be tough now! Be free like the clouds!
We all have the parts to live, search the heart to give
(part to play!)
Be tough now! Be free like the clouds!
We play one and only part that only we can play now,
part to play

I try to breathe and I try to seek
Thinking of your part and my part, clouds are moving What have we forgot? What have we earned and learned?

Everybody has a part in this world!

We all have the parts to live, search the heart to give

(part to play!)
Be tough now! Be free like the clouds!
We all have the parts to live, search the heart to give
(part to play!)
Be tough now! Be free like the clouds!
We play one and only part that only we can play now,
part to play
