Love me to hate, Hate me just to love
There will be nowhere for us to hide
Just don't ignore, that's the rule we share
Share the risk and the joy here together

Here we go! Here we go! We know what to love now!
Smash and build now, climb and fall
Here we go! Here we go! We know what to hate now!
Crush and start now, Try and fail now,

Too late to look back the yesterday and dive to despair
What we face straight to is

Fear and respect now
Fear and respect now

There was a fight on the corner last night
A kid got stubbed and he died in the ambulance
Are we too savage in this fragile life?
Too much to talk and to think, what we do now?

Here we go! Here we go! We know what to love now!
We can only live on the instincts

Here we go! Here we go! We know what to hate now!
A life without death, a love without hate

Too much to regret but do our best, do our best
What we face straight to is

Fear and respect now
Fear and respect now
Let out fear and respect to all
To all the birth and the death on the earth

Sometimes too fast and sometimes too slow
Time goes by like a light
No matter what we do the time just goes by

Sometimes too gentle sometimes too rough
Time breaths beneath the light

No matter what we do the time just goes by

Fear and respect to all and go high! (Fear and respect now!)

Fear and respect to all and go high! (Fear and respect now!)

Fear and respect to all and go high! (Fear and respect now!)

Go high! Go high!
