The voices wake me up
Tell me do the best and take the shortest way!
Four thirty in the morning, somehow I'm up
Another day to count and to go around

The slow light of the morning
Drink a glass of water and take a bath
Thinking about my friends, from the bottom the ceiling is dancing
Like the shadows on the lawn

What does the best mean to you? May be not eating too much... ?
How do you try to do the best? Try not to drink too much... ?

Moving on to the higher stage, challenging the destiny
The best! Challenging the best!

Sun shines and lights
Everyone who lives on this planet earth
Sun shines and lights every little confusion and joy
And off course you and!

What is the worst thing to do? Not to know what the worst is... ?

Can the best still be the worst? It happens all the time...

Moving on to the higher stage, challenging the destiny
The best! Challenging the best!

Never too late... prayers in the early morning
Never too late... Let's just start today!
It's just another way to start, let's start today!

What does the best mean to you? May be not eating too
much... ?
How do you try to do the best? Try not to drink too much... ?

What is the worst thing to do? Not to know what the worst is... ?
Can do the best be the worst? It happens all the time... ?

Moving on to the higher stage, challenging the destiny
Moving on to the higher stage, challenging the destiny
The best! Challenging the best!

Never too late, do the best!
