You're so happy! When you smile birds will sing a song You're so pretty! When you smile sun will shine and light
Just a little bit of what you have will provide
A lot of love and joy to this world!

You make me happy! You make me want to sing a song!
You make me happy! You make me want to jump around!
And I hope I make you happy just like you do!
How great it is to feel and share this moment! For a while...

You give me so much more than I give you!
And all I can do is just to sing a song...
What can I give you to make you happy?
When all I can do is to see you sleeping...
Tomorrow we'll be there! I will sing for you!
Could you smile for me like you always do
Smile like you always do!

When you are crying, I feel so powerless like a child...
When you are crying, I just don't know what I should do...

I wish I could make a funny face and make you Want to laugh and we would laugh together for a while

You give me so much more than I give you!
And all I can do is just to sing a song...
What can I give you to make you happy?
When all I can do is to see you sleeping...
Tomorrow we'll be there! I will sing for you!
Could you smile for me like you always do
Tomorrow we'll be there! I will sing for you!
Could you smile for me like you always do

You just give me so much!
So I try to give you all that I've been given from your smile!

The greatest smile of all!
You just give me so much!
So I try to give you all that I've been given from your
smile!
The greatest smile of all!

The greatest smile of all!
The greatest smile!
