A certain softness in her eyes
Fascinates me more than I ever thought it would
(A certain softness)
More than I ever thought it could

A certain softness in her eyes
Got me hooked, got me hooked

A kind of sadness in her smile
Captivates me, surer than anything before (A kind of sadness)
Surer than anything before

A kind of sadness in her smile
Got me hooked, got me hooked, got me hooked

If I could even find the words to tell her
I wouldn't want to anyway
'Cause that would break the spell, and you know very well
I couldn't betray

A touch of wildness in her style
Haunts my memory more than I ever thought it would (A touch of wildness)
more than I ever thought it could

A touch of wildness in her style
Got me hooked, got me hooked, got me hooked

A certain softness in her eyes
Fascinates me more than I ever thought it would
(A certain softness)
More than I ever thought it could

A certain softness in her eyes
Got me hooked, got me hooked
